

This guide has been authorised by Evolution Super (Australia) Pty Ltd

Before seeking our advice, you probably have a number of questions you would like to ask about Evolution Super (Australia) Pty Ltd (Evolution Super). You have the right to ask us about our charges, the type of advice we will give you and what you can do if you have a complaint about our services. Key information is set out in answer to the questions below. If you need more information or clarification, please ask us. This Financial Services Guide is issued with the authority of Evolution Super.

You should also be aware that you are entitled to receive a Statement of Advice (SOA) whenever we provide you with any advice which takes into account your objectives, financial situation and needs. The SOA will contain the advice, the basis on which it is given and information about fees, commissions and associations which may have influenced the provision of the advice.

On an ongoing basis, a Record of Advice (ROA) will be provided instead of an SOA if there have been no significant changes in your personal circumstances or the basis of the advice has not significantly changed since the last SOA was provided. You have a right to request for a copy of these documents.

In the event we make a recommendation to acquire a particular financial product (other than securities) or offer to issue or arrange the issue of a financial product, we must also provide you with a Product Disclosure Statement containing information about the particular product which will enable you to make an informed decision in relation to the acquisition of that product.
